

The Nebraska Person-Centered Planning Initiative Invites You to Join Us for a Facebook Live Kick-Off Event Featuring:

Tony Green
Director
DHHS-Division of
Developmental Disabilities

Kristen Larsen
Executive Director
Nebraska Council on
Developmental Disabilities

Wednesday, September 9: live at 12 PM, reposted at 7 PM

The Department of Health and Human Services and the Nebraska Council on Developmental Disabilities are launching a new Person-Centered Planning initiative to reinvigorate person-centered supports for all Nebraska's Home and Community-Based Services Waivers.

Register at: <https://tinyurl.com/PCPFacebookLive>

The Person-Centered Planning Initiative will Provide Free:

- Webinars featuring two founders of Person-Centered Planning:
 - Beth Mount on September 22, 1:00 PM. Register at: <https://tinyurl.com/BethMount>
 - John O'Brien on October 5, 1:00 PM. Register at: <https://tinyurl.com/JohnOBrienPCP>
- Online training for DHHS Supervisors and Service Coordinators.
- Online training for people with disabilities, people in Home and Community-Based Services Waivers, families, guardians, advocates, direct support professionals, and community allies.
- Weekly Zoom training sessions.
- Additional webinars by national experts in Person-Centered Planning including Jack Pearpoint, Lynda Kahn, David Wetherow, Michael Callahan, James Conroy, Darcy Elks, Al Condeluci, Danyetta Najoli, Jenny Turner, and Sheila Reynolds.

To receive more information about these events, sign up at: <https://tinyurl.com/PCPInitiative>

Event Collaborators: Statewide Independent Living Council, League of Human Dignity, Brain Injury Alliance, People First of Nebraska, The Arc of Nebraska, Disability Rights Nebraska, Munroe-Meyer Institute-UCEDD, Nebraska Association of Service Providers (NASP)